

Job fair set for Friday

By Staff Reports

Published 9:05 pm Monday, August 19, 2019

The Suffolk Redevelopment Job and Career Fair will be held Friday at the King's Fork Recreation Center, 350 Kings Fork Road. This job fair will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and is sponsored by the Suffolk Redevelopment and Housing Authority, Suffolk Workforce Development Center and Paul D. Camp Community College.

Job seekers will meet with employers and employment resources organizations that are participating in this free event. There is no registration required for job-seeking attendees. Those looking for employment should dress professionally and bring their resumes.

Recruiters and employers that wish to participate may contact Mike Smith at 925-3721 or Roxanne Flamer at 925-6507.